INDEX TO VOL. CVII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ABE

ABERCROMBIE (Prof. Lascelles), T. E. Brown, 716–728
Adult religious education, 26–35
Agricultural produce, averages of selling prices of, no real guide to general prosperity or adversity, 493
Air travel in Africa, one of the great problems of, 548
Amery (Right Hon. L. S.), The Crisis in the Unionist Party, 437–450
Anti-Socialist coalition suggested as unsound, 439
Arabs, treatment of, in Palestine, 594 et seq.
Archbishops' Commission, quotation from the Report of on adult religious education, 32
Ashley-Montagu (F. M.), Three Unpublished 'Imaginary Conversations' by Walter Savage Landor, 836–845

BADGER, The, and His Reputation, 93–102
Balfour (Arthur James): Some Personal Reminiscences, 729–740
Banks, private, 'managed by men of experience and standing,' 360
Bax (Peter), The National Theatre, 698–703
Beaverbrook's (Lord) policy the old policy which caused the secession of the American Colonies, 329
Belgium under the domination of an alien power throughout the ages, 214
Bell (Geoffrey F.), Canada's Outlook, 189–196
Berkeley (Lennox), Wireless Music, 686–697
Biography and Unbelief, 113–121
Biological principle, Prof. Stanley Hall on the, 21
Blasphemy Laws, The Future of the, 391–401

COA

Booth (Meyrick), The Problem of the Family, 257–264
British coal, fall in exports of to foreign markets since 1913 widely distributed, 152
British Empire, membership of a high privilege, 69
British policy in India, Lord Irwin's effort to dissipate an atmosphere of mistrust, 301
British sugar-producing Dependencies, the crisis in, 662 et seq.
British Summary Court, The, in the Rhineland, 526–534
British world power, signature of Treaty at Paris in 1783 the end of an epoch as regards, 181
Brown (T. E.), 716–728
Brussels a Hundred Years Ago, 214–226
Budget of 1930, inherent vices of the, 589–590
Burlington House, A Conversation at, 419–425
Bush, 'larders' of the, 552–553
Bush-Lore for the Airman, 548–555

CANADA'S Outlook, 189–196
Canadian trade with United States and United Kingdom (table), 655
Cathedrals and the Church Assembly, 46–55
Central schools 'a mockery and a delusion,' 13
Chamberlain policy, Tariff Reformers and the, 639 et seq.
Charing Cross Bridge, 365–369
Charlemagne an ardent lover of learning, 266
Cheese for dishes, the best, 709
Church of England, The, in Jerusalem, 205–213
Church of England, position of in modern society being forced into a new prominence, 459
Coal Mines Bill, The, 311–322

COA

Coal-mining industry, savings which would result from district amalgamation, 320–321
Coal Production, 150–158
Coatman (Prof. J.), The Present Situation in India, 741–753
Cohen (Israel), 'The Tragedy of Palestine': A Reply, 808–814
Colchester-Wemyss (Sir Francis), The Horrors of Good Plain Cooking, 704–715
Cologne, housebreaking and other crimes in during period of occupation, 528
Commercial Vegetable Culture, 245–256
Compulsory education, complaints of the shortcomings of, 3 et seq.
Conrad and the Younger Generation, 103–112
Conservative Free Traders, arguments of summarised, 326
Cooking, The Horrors of Good Plain, 704–715
Cooper (Duff), The Political Outlook, 775–782
Cotton Trade, The, 469–479
Coulton (Dr. G. G.), The New Roman Index, 378–390
Cox (Harold), Tariffs and Empire, 648–661
Craddock (Sir Reginald), The Indian Scene: A Reply, 460–468
Crossing the Rubicon?, 451–459
Cruisers, number and size of depend on the interests they have to defend, 291
Culpin (Ewart G.), Charing Cross Bridge, 365–369
Curle (Richard), Conrad and the Younger Generation, 103–112

DAVENPORT (E. H.), After Hatry, 353–364
Death duties, payment of in land suggested, 496–502
Democracy, an educated, as an aim, 10–16
Democracy, party system the indispensable concomitant of, 143
Dent (H. C.), An Educational Survey: The Aim: An Educated Democracy, 10–16
Dewar (Rear-Admiral K. G. B.), The Naval Conference of 1930, 285–299; The End of the Naval Conference, 606–619
Disarmament Conferences, what Geneva and London have taught us at, 617 et seq.

FOX

Disraeli and the fear of war, 182
Doles, conversion 'a spectre no less dreadful than,' 583
Dominion Status, 56–69
Drury Lane Theatre, the varied fortunes of, 698 et seq.
Durham (Right Rev. Lord Bishop of), Crossing the Rubicon?, 451–459

EAST Africa, several native problems in, 70 et seq.
Education not a good 'line' for the ambitious person, 2
Educational Survey, An: I. The Need for Inquiry, 1–9; II. The Aim: An Educated Democracy, 10–16; III. The Future of the Public Schools, 17–25; IV. Adult Education: The Religious Movement, 26–35; V. The Profession of a Teacher, 159–166
Egg and poultry production more profitable than dairy, etc., farming, 535 et seq.
Empire Crusade a source of embarrassment to Unionist Party, 327
Empire Settlement, 81–85
England and Egypt, 763–774
English Corn-Growing, Seventy Years of, 484–495
English corn-growing, the 'sixties probably the Golden Age of, 485
Ernle (Right Hon. Lord), Seventy-Years of English Corn-Growing, 484–495
Examinations 'a great evil' at Oxford, 8

FACTORY and coal mine, deductions made from comparison of as regards production unreliable, 318
Family system, impending extinction of viewed with alarm, 261
Fiction, no hard-and-fast distinction between biography and, 119
Foot (Stephen H.), An Educational Survey: The Future of the Public Schools, 17–25
Foreign capitals, the Dominions and separate diplomatic representation in, 67
Fowls, Réaumur's experiments for determining the most productive, 537
Fox (R. M.), Rolling Stones, 846–854

FUE
Fuel, price of, a principal item in the cost of living, 316
Future of Sea Power, The: A Speculation, 179–188

GLADSTONE Government, the, of 1884 and woman suffrage, 519
Gordon (Douglas), The Badger and his Reputation, 93–102
Gore (Right Hon. W. Ormsby), The Sugar Crisis, 662–669
Gregory (Dr. J. W.), The Dawn of Mining, 236–244

HAIG, 855–864
Hall (Sir Daniel), The Native Question in Kenya, 70–80
Hamilton (Mary Agnes), The Political Outlook, 620–633
Harris (Sir Charles), Retrenchment and Prosperity, 339–352
Hatry, After, 353–364
Hearnshaw (Prof. F. J. C.), The Three-Party System, 141–149
Hichens (Capt. W.), Bush-Lore for the Airman, 548–555
High Court, the cost of litigation in, 86 et seq.
Hodge (Harold), An Educational Survey: The Need for Inquiry, 1–9
Housing Bill, The, 670–679
Housing, new, for slum-dwellers, erroneous figures given as to rent by a Times leading article, 334, 335
Hudson (G. F.), Political Parties in Japan, 792–796
Huguenots, the, and vegetable culture in England, 246
Hutton (Very Rev. W. H.), Cathedrals and the Church Assembly, 46–55

'IMAGINARY Conversations,' Three Unpublished, by Walter Savage Landor, 836–845
Imperial Press Conferences, Three, 783–791
India, The Present Situation in, 741–753
Indian and coloured labour in South Africa, 'exploitation of inevitable,' 200
Indian Scene, The, 300–310; A Reply, 460–468

MCC
Indians in South Africa, 197–204
Indians, need for greater confidence in each other, 309
Industry and production, form of taxation in this country a deterrent to, 591
Iron, manufacture of from meteorites by primitive people, 237
Irreligious expressions, early law dealing with, 391

JEBB (Richard), Preference and the Referendum, 634–647
Jesuit Order, experiences in the, 389–390
Jones (Prof. J. H.), Coal Production, 150–158
Journalism Fifty Years Ago, 426–436
Justices, licensing, often governed by personal prejudices, 39

KENYA tribes, characteristics of, 70 et seq.
Kirwan (Hon. J. W.), Three Imperial Press Conferences, 783–791

LABOUR expected to gain more ground at the next election, 629
'Labour' less a party than a Church, 458
Lancashire Cotton Corporation, the, some of the difficulties it has to face, 478–479
Land and Death Duties, 496–502
Lawrence (D. H.), 568–580
League of Nations Council, the Preparatory Committee of the, 287
Left-handed man, why is he in a minority? 123
Liberal Party, extinction of probable at next General Election, 149
Licensing Reform, 36–45
Litigation, The Cost of, 86–92
Lobjoit (Sir William G.), Commercial Vegetable Culture, 245–256
Lyttelton (Hon. Mrs. Alfred), Arthur James Balfour: Some Personal Reminiscences, 729–740
Lytton (Right Hon. the Earl of), The Indian Scene, 300–310

MCCURDY (Edward), A Conversation at Burlington House, 419–425

MAR

Marie (Queen) of Roumania a dynamic personality in the country, 373
Marriage challenged as an institution by male and female novelwriters, 257
Marriott (Sir John), Dominion Status, 56–69
Meeûs (Comtesse de), Brussels a Hundred Years Ago, 214–226
Militant female suffrage, origination of the idea by Christabel Pankhurst, 517
Mining, The Dawn of, 236–244
Modern Tendencies in Exploration, 825–835
Molson (Hugh), Unionist Party Policy, 323–330
Montrose (Duke of), Land and Death Duties, 496–502
'Morals of the people' depraved by blasphemy, 397
Moussorgsky the Realist, 407–418
Mulliner (Beatrice C.), An Educational Survey: The Profession of a Teacher, 159–166

NATIONAL Theatre, The, 698–703
Native Question in Kenya, The, 70–80
Naturalistic ethic 'coming more and more to dominate our practical life and social movements,, 263
Naval Conference, The, of 1930, 285–299; The End of the Naval Conference, 606–619
Naval Treaty, The, 754–762
New Despotism, The, analogical quotations from on Church and State, 49–50
Newman (Major Polson), The Church of England in Jerusalem, 205–213
Nicholson (E. M.), Modern Tendencies in Exploration, 825–835
Nokes (Dr. G. D.), The Future of the Blasphemy Laws, 391–401

ORANGE Free State, few Asiatics in, 203
Oversea Mechanical Road Transport, 227–235

PALESTINE, the Church of England in, 205–213
Palestine, The Tragedy of, 594–605; A Reply, 808–814
Pankhurst (Emmeline) and Militant Suffrage 515–525

RHI

Parent, education a function of the, 23
Parkes (Major Norman), The British Summary Court in the Rhineland, 526–534
Parliamentary machine, two-party system vital to smooth and efficient working of the, 147
Part (Alexander F.), Licensing Reform, 36–45
Pelagia of Antioch, 556–567
Petrie (Sir Charles), Spain at the Cross-Roads, 503–514
Political Outlook, The, 620–633, 775–782
Political Parties in Japan, 792–796
Politics, group system in, lamented in Germany and France, 145
Poultry Industry, The Rise of the, 535–547
Preference and the Referendum, 634–647
Problem, The, of the Family, 257–264
Psychology a method, not an influence, 113
Public opinion not based on logic, 400
Public, reasons for prejudice of the, against publichouses, 42
Public Schools, The Future of the, 17–25
Public schools, tables showing the growth of, 23–25
Public social services, tables showing expenditure on, 343, 345
Publichouse, condition of, of social interest and importance, 37
Punnett (Prof. R. C.), The Rise of the Poultry Industry, 535–547

RADIUM: Its Growth in National Importance, 680–685
Radium, peculiar properties and uses of, 682
Rationalisation, industrial, may become a very important factor in inter-Imperial economics, 445
Raven-Hart (Major R.), Wireless Music, 686–697
Redmayne (Sir Richard), The Coal Mines Bill, 311–322
Responsible government, Is Dominion status synonymous with? 56
Retrenchment and Prosperity, 339–352
Rhineland Summary Court, English procedure in a source of interest to the Germans, 527

RHO

Rhodesia, prehistoric mining in, 242–244
Right, The Origin of, 122–140
Roads overseas, special type of vehicle required for, 228 et seq.
Robinson (Sir Harry Perry), Haig, 855–864
Rolling Stones, 846–854
Roman Catholic clerics, numbers of on the Paris streets owing to 'defection,' 387
Roman Index, The New, 378–390
Roscoe (E. S.), The Cost of Litigation, 86–92
Roumania, The Political Situation in, 370–377
Roumania, public dissatisfaction with the economic position of, 375
Rural land of England and Scotland, difficulties of owners of as regards death duties, 496 et seq.
Russ (Prof. Sidney), Radium: Its Growth in National Importance, 680–685
Russia and China, The Dispute between, 167–178

SAFEGUARDING duties, effect of on cotton lace and net imports, etc., 660
Saintsbury (Prof. George), Journalism Fifty Years Ago, 426–436
Saracens, The, in Switzerland, 402–406
Scientists guided now to a large extent by faith, 121
Scientists in agriculture formerly regarded as dreamers by farmers, 487
Sea control, establishment and maintenance of not the final purpose of naval warfare, 187
Sharp (Evelyn), Emmeline Pankhurst and Militant Suffrage, 515–525
Shaw (Bernard) and others on education, 159 et seq.
Sherry and cocktails compared, 713–714
Sidebotham (Herbert), The Naval Treaty, 754–762
Simon (E. D.), Slum Clearance, 331–338
Slum Clearance, 331–338; A Reply, 480–483
Socialist Budget, The First, 581–593
Soldier Settlement Scheme a failure in Canada, 84
South Africa, Indian Christian converts in, 197

TOW

Spain 'a backward country' to the average Englishman, 503
Spain at the Cross-Roads, 503–514
Spanish public, proverbial apathy of, 511
Speight (W. L.), Indians in South Africa, 197–204
Spinning mills the foundation on which the cotton trade is built, 473
Stawell (F. Melian), Time, Imagination and the Modern Novelist, 274–284
Stewart (Sir Kenneth), The Cotton Trade, 469–479
Stock Exchange, why many people are 'out' of it to-day, 362
Submarine a powerful weapon legitimately used against warships, 292
Submarines, strengths of British Empire and four other Powers, 297
Sugar Crisis, The, 662–669
Summary Court in the Rhineland an accepted feature of local life by German public, 533
Swann (Robert), Biography and Unbelief, 113–121
Swarajist politician, difficulty of in co-operating with his own countrymen, 306
Switzerland, the amazing episode of the Saracens in, 402 et seq.
Sydenham of Combe (Right Hon. Lord), The Tragedy of Palestine, 594–605
Sykes (Brig.-Gen. Sir Percy), The Saracens in Switzerland, 402–406

TALBOT (Melvin F.), The Future of Sea Power: A Speculation, 179–188
Tariffs and Empire, 648–661
Tenth-Century Feminist, A, 265–273
Three-Party System, The, 141–149
Tilby (A. Wyatt), The Origin of Right, 122–140
Time, Imagination and the Modern Novelist, 274–284
Tomatoes, Dutch, why they are able to compete with home-grown ones, 250
Tory administration and legislation, 'conditions of the unemployed worsened by,' 624
Tory Party never irrevocably committed to any political nostrum, 324
Townroe (B. S.), The Housing Bill, 670–679

TRA

Trade, course of, economic laws no longer determining factors, 185
Tripp (H. Alker), Women Police, 815–824
Turnbull (R. E.), Oversea Mechanical Road Transport, 227–235
Turner (W. J.), Moussorgsky the Realist, 407–418

UNEMPLOYMENT due to a fundamental failure of our whole economic policy, 443
Unionist Party, The Crisis in the, 437–450
Unionist Party Policy, 323–330

VEGETABLES, etc., advantages of applying the National Mark Scheme to, 253
Vegetables, insufficient use of in English menus, 711
Victorians, the, and great men, 113
Voluntary education movements 'sporadic and uneven,' 31

WADDELL (Helen), Pelagia of Antioch, 556–567
Wang (Ching-Chun), The Dispute between Russia and China, 167–178
Warships: categories suggested by France and Great Britain, 294; what the United States look for,

YOU

295; tonnage proposals—British Empire, United States, Japan, and France, 296
Weaving trade, competition of automatic looms in and the trade unions, 473
Wellington (Duke of) and Belgium, 216
Winter (Cyril M.), Empire Settlement, 81–85
Winterton (Right Hon. Earl), England and Egypt, 763–774
Wireless Music, 686–697
Wise (E. F.), World Wheat and the British Farmer, 797–807
Wolfe (Humbert), D. H. Lawrence, 568–580
Women Police, 815–824
Wood (Right Hon. Sir Kingsley), Slum Clearance: A Reply, 480–483
World Wheat and the British Farmer, 797–807
Wright (Prof. F. A.), A Tenth-Century Feminist, 265–273
Wright (F. Chalmers), The Political Situation in Roumania, 370–377

YEAXLEE (Basil A.), An Educational Survey: Adult Education: The Religious Movement, 26–35
Young (Right Hon. Sir E. Hilton), The First Socialist Budget, 581–593

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN BY THE WHITEFRIARS PRESS, LTD., LONDON AND TONBRIDGE.